ABOUT ME

An IT graduate at University of Sri Jayewardenepura, I'm an enthusiastic individual presently seeking for the role of intern or an associate in IT sector. My primary interest lies with software development. Being a self-motivated, fast learner, I'm able to multitask and handle responsibilities from different job roles elegantly. I also consider myself as a person with strong communication skills both orally and in written forms. Thus, I actively engage in team work and am willing to contribute my best in any tasks assigned for me.
